

ASTROLOGY

Planetary Event Calendar for September, 2019

by Joe DiSabatino, M.Ed.

Here are the key astrological events in September when the Sun, Moon and planets are forming significant aspects.

- 1. August 30: New Moon occurs at 6:37 am in Myrtle Beach at 6 degrees of Virgo.
Relate your New Moon wishes to the archetype of Virgo: developing discrimination, being of service to the community, honing work skills, grounding oneself in the earth, doing what you can for the environment. Mars also at 6 Virgo conjuncts the Sun and Moon, so the energy will be there this month to accomplish all the practical details that need doing. Aggressive instincts need to be harnessed.
- 2. September 1st through 15th: The Sun and inner planets Mercury, Venus and Mars are all moving through the earth sign of Virgo, each taking turns making connections to the outer planets Jupiter, Saturn, Neptune and Pluto. Jupiter gives optimism/faith, Saturn practical discipline, Neptune imaginative vision, and Pluto will power/determination. So the first half of September is a great time for setting new career and personal goals and to start implementing them, especially from the 18th because retrograde Saturn turns direct on that day and remains direct until May 11, 2020.
- 3. September 16-20: Mars makes positive connection with Pluto. This is a physically energizing aspect and provides the strength and determination to push through any obstacles in our path.
- 4. September 24-30th: Venus in Libra makes stressful aspects to Saturn and Pluto in Capricorn. Relationship issues come to the surface, such as work demands interfering with time together. Not a good week to make a major purchase or to start a new relationship.
- 5. Jupiter in Sagittarius in stressful aspect to Neptune in Pisces all month, exact on September 21st. This dynamic aspect will force us to face the areas in our lives where we are being unrealistic or delusional, gullible, over-indulgent or hedonistic, where we need to be more honest with ourselves and others, where we need to loosen or tighten up boundaries, to let go and cut our losses. This aspect teaches the world painful but valuable lessons about who to trust and when to trust.
- 6. September 28th: New Moon occurs at 1:28 pm in Myrtle Beach at 5 degrees Libra. Align your New Moon wishes with the archetype of Libra: enhancing your life with beauty, art, harmony, peace, deepening relationships through cooperation and listening. Sun and Moon in Libra connect to Uranus in Taurus at the New Moon, both signs are ruled by Venus. Venus/Uranus: unconventional art, novel experiences that expand one's cultural horizons, breaking out of predictable social patterns. Go somewhere new, try something different, even a new type of cuisine. For women especially: buy something that jazzes up your look or try a new hair style.
