

Joe has studied and practiced humanistic and soul-oriented astrology since 1980. A psychotherapist, trainer and teacher for over 20 years, his counseling skills and broad international experience helping individuals, couples and families heal give a unique depth to his astrology readings. Joe is able to translate astrological symbols into language that is easy to grasp, meaningful, practical and useful. Joe also specializes in relationship astrology charts between romantic partners, parent-child, friends, co-workers.
